

Study at the University of Antwerp

Programmes in English

University
of Antwerp

| Let's shape the future

The University of Antwerp is a forward-thinking research university, located in the heart of Europe. Out of our 21 428 students, 17.5% are international, representing 127 nationalities. The university scores well in several university rankings, and is appreciated for having one of the highest values for money. As a student, you find yourself in a vibrant, innovative city with lots of historical charm, right in the heart of Europe.

Ready to start your adventure and join our classroom?

Bachelor's programmes

- Social-Economic Sciences

Master's programmes

- Applied Ecohydrology
- Applied Economic Sciences: Economic Policy
- Biology:
 - Biodiversity: Conservation and Restoration
 - Global Change Biology
- Biomedical Sciences:
 - Infectious and Tropical Diseases
 - Neurosciences
- Bioscience Engineering: Sustainable Urban Bioscience Engineering
- Business Economics
- Business Engineering: Financial Engineering
- Chemistry
- Computer Science
- Digital Business Engineering
- Digital Text Analysis
- Electronics and ICT Engineering Technology
- Epidemiology
- Laws
- Leading International Vaccinology Education
- Linguistics and Literature
- Marine and Lacustrine Science and Management
- Molecular Biology
- Philosophy (Research)
- Physics
- Political Science
- Rehabilitation Sciences and Physiotherapy

Advanced Master's programmes

- Development Evaluation and Management
- Global Health
- Globalisation and Development
- Governance and Development
- Water Sustainability: Integrating Technology- and Nature-based Solutions

Postgraduate programmes

- Algology
- Asia-Europe Cultural Curatorship Studies
- Energy and Climate
- Epidemiology

Last updated in July 2023

University
of Antwerp

| Let's shape the future